

Thank you for making the honorable decision to include the National Immigration Law Center (NILC) in your estate plans – we're honored by your partnership, now and in the future. Philanthropy is a powerful form of activism, and your commitment ensures NILC's unique role at the intersection of immigrant rights and democracy defense will be sustained for years to come.

Together, we'll guarantee that your voice will carry on by naming the National Immigration Law Center as a beneficiary of the following:

YOUR INFORMATION

Full legal name: _____
Mailing address: _____
Email: _____ Phone: _____

| Bequest through your will or trust to the National Immigration Law Center    |                                                                                                                                                        |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/>                                                               | Specific dollar amount: $ _____                                                                                                                       |
| <input type="radio"/>                                                               | Specific percentage of your estate: _____%                                                                                                             |
| <input type="radio"/>                                                               | Specific percentage of your residuary estate (the amount or percentage that is left after all other bequests and expenses have been fulfilled): _____% |
| The National Immigration Law Center is a beneficiary of all or a portion of: |                                                                                                                                                        |
| <input type="radio"/>                                                               | A life insurance policy                                                                                                                                |
| <input type="radio"/>                                                               | A financial institution (bank, CD, brokerage) account                                                                                                  |
| <input type="radio"/>                                                               | A retirement account                                                                                                                                   |

The National Immigration Law Center is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Your donation is tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law. NILC's federal tax identification number is 95-4539765.

Your attorney may wish to use the following language when making a bequest:

"I give, devise, and bequeath to the National Immigration Law Center, a nonprofit organization with federal tax ID 95-4539765, with a primary place of business at 3405 Wilshire Boulevard, #108-62, Los Angeles, CA 90010, [the sum of $ _____ / _____% of my estate / _____% of my residuary estate / the following property: _____], to be used for its general purposes."

Completing beneficiary designations

Gifts from a life insurance policy, a bank or brokerage account, or a retirement account are made on the beneficiary-designation form provided by your account custodian or plan administrator—not by this form or by your will. Please contact your custodian or plan administrator to name the National Immigration Law Center as a beneficiary. For retirement accounts, your spouse's written consent may be required in order to name a beneficiary other than your spouse.

Important information about this form

This form is a statement of your current intentions only. It is revocable, is not a pledge or a contract, and creates no legal or binding obligation on you or your estate. You may change or revoke your plans at any time.

The National Immigration Law Center does not provide legal, tax, financial, or estate-planning advice. We encourage every prospective donor to seek guidance from their own legal counsel and financial advisors. Any counsel engaged by the National Immigration Law Center acts on behalf of the organization and not on behalf of the donor.

As with any decision involving your assets, we recommend that you seek the advice of your attorney when considering a planned gift.

Acknowledgment and signature

I have completed this form to share my current estate-planning intentions with the National Immigration Law Center. I understand that this form is revocable and creates no legal or binding obligation on me or my estate.

Signature: _____ Date: _____
Printed name: _____

The National Immigration Law Center will keep the information you provide confidential and will use it only for gift administration and donor stewardship. We will not share it except as required by law or with your permission.

Returning this form

Please return this completed form to the National Immigration Law Center by mail to:

ATTN: Acasia Flores
National Immigration Law Center
P.O. Box 34573
Washington, DC 20043

Or return this completed form in saved as a PDF by email to development@nilc.org.

*Thank you again for your generosity and protection of immigrant futures.
Should you have any questions, please contact us at development@nilc.org.*